

WHY WE LOVE ST. LOUIS

October 2016

1 HISTORIC SHAW ART FAIR
*Saturday, October 1st—Sunday,
October 2nd, 2016*
Flora Place

The Shaw Neighborhood Improvement Association has hosted the very popular Shaw Art Fair each fall since 1993. Located on the tree-lined parkway of beautiful Flora Place at Tower Grove Avenue, the Historic Shaw Art Fair is one of the premier fine art and fine craft fairs in the St. Louis area. It is highly rated by art fair magazines and participating artists. Roughly 135 top-caliber artists and craftspeople from around the country are selected each year to participate in the professionally juried event.

Saturday 9am—5pm, Sunday 10am—5pm

2 STUCKMEYER'S ANTIQUE TRACTOR
SHOW & PUMPKIN PATCH
Sunday, October 2nd, 2016
Fenton

This October, come visit the beautiful, nostalgic farm that's been maintained by four generations of the Stuckmeyer family. From the gourds, indian corn, fresh vegetables, and caramel apples, to the corn maze, pony rides, and pick-your-own pumpkins, this farm is the complete fall package! They'll also have farm animals on display. And on October 2nd, they'll be holding their 18th Annual Antique Tractor Show. Bring the family—there'll be plenty to do!

15 GREAT GODFREY MAZE
*Saturday, October 15th—Sunday,
October 30th, 2016*
Godfrey, Illinois

The 7-acre Great Godfrey Maze is open on the week-ends in the fall. On Friday and Saturday nights, the maze will be open after dark. Each visitor is required to have a flashlight to help navigate the twists and turns of the Great Godfrey Maze. We have a full concession stand open during maze business hours. While the Great Godfrey Maze is our largest attraction, it is not the only one we offer. As always, we have the Cow Train, Corn Crib, Corn Slide, Hay Wagon, and the newest attraction, the Jumping Pillow! For those who dare to enter, there's also a Haunted Corn Maze from dark—10pm every weekend night.
